

The route

Betwixt Mosel and Rhine, forts, castles and wine, you'll find the Ehrbachklamm Dream Loop – in a setting to delight the senses.

At 8.5km long, and with a cumulative elevation gain of 590 metres, the Ehrbachklamm Dream Loop offers an extraordinary number of experiences within a relatively short distance. There are some impressive lookouts, and plenty of seats along the way, so you can rest and enjoy the scenery at your leisure. Water rushing and cascading through the Ehrbachklamm like nowhere else, the medieval slate quarry at Ehrbach, the water wheel at the Daubisberger Mill, and Schöneck Castle all line the trail.

As far back as the early Middle Ages the Ehrbachtal, a valley alongside the Moselle and a link to Boppard on the Rhine, was considered to be an attractive and strategically advantageous location. Ehrenburg Castle and Schöneck Castle bear witness to this, having been subjugated by the Archbishop-Elector of Trier, Baldwin of Luxembourg, during the Eltz Feud of 1331, and also following the construction of the Rauschenburg counter-castle above the Ehrbachklamm.

The best way to experience the beauty of the Ehrbachklamm, and the rippling stream with its waterfalls, is to follow the Dream Loop in an anticlockwise direction upstream. Sturdy footwear is essential.

Certified by the German Hiking Institute, the Ehrbachklamm Dream Loop achieved 96 adventure points.
