

The route

Betwixt Mosel and Rhine, forts, castles and wine, you'll find the Ehrbachklamm Dream Loop – in a setting to delight the senses. You can take the Ehrbachklamm Dream Loop in two ways, via the shorter or the longer route: the Ehrbachklamm Dream Loop or the Ehrbachklamm Dream Loop + Schöneck Loop. The shorter route is 8.5 km long and has a cumulative elevation gain of 590 metres. The longer route – Ehrbachklamm Dream Loop + Schöneck Loop – is 14.8 km long with a cumulative elevation gain of 840 metres.

The final decision as to whether you want to follow the shorter or longer trail has to be taken after 5km, once you have reached the Schöneck and Rauschenburg lookouts. We recommend the slightly longer trail, as you can never get enough of the Ehrbachklamm Dream Loop with its scenic beauty and objects of cultural and historical interest.

You should allow around 6 hours. It will take a little longer if you avail yourself of the hospitality of the Daubisberger Mill in the Ehrbachklamm, or the Tenne Inn in Oppenhausen. The best way to experience the beauty of the Ehrbachklamm and the rippling stream with its waterfalls is to follow the Dream Loop in an anticlockwise direction upstream. Sturdy footwear is essential.

Certified by the German Hiking Institute, the Ehrbachklamm Dream Loop achieved 96 adventure points.
