

The route

The valley becomes "narrower and narrower, the rocks more rugged and the landscape wilder; and this is where the Rhine is at its most beautiful," wrote the poet and philosopher, Friedrich Schlegel, more than 200 years ago. You'll experience the pure romance of the Rhine along the Rheingold Dream Loop. That's also how the famous film director, Edgar Reitz, saw it as his characters, Edu and Lucie, in the Hunsrück saga, 'Heimat I', stopped on their way from Berlin to Schabbach in the Hunsrück for a picnic at the panoramic vantage point where the Rheingold Dream Loop passes by today.

And there's more. The Rheingold Dream Loop is an excursion through 400 million years of Earth's history in the Middle Rhine, with views of the historic Hirzenach Priory and the almost forgotten Celtic settlement at Ginsterstück near Rheinbay.

Certified by the German Hiking Institute, the Rheingold Dream Loop achieved 83 adventure points.
